

FESTIVAL OF SHAVUOT

ALL-NIGHT CHEESE-CAKE, REFRESHMENTS & STUDY MARATHON

Led by Rabbi Elli

In aid of Thousand 4 1000 – A local charity that houses Refugees

When: Saturday 19th – Sunday 20th May 2018

Where: BHPS, 6 Lansdowne Road, BN3 1FF

Start: 9 PM (last entry: 10 PM)

Participants will be free to leave at any time during the night

Finish: 5 AM on the beach opp. Lansdowne Place

Erev (Evening) Service, 8 PM, Shacharit (Morning) Service, 5 AM

PRECEDED BY

RAINBOW PILGRIMS POP-UP EXHIBITION ON LGBTQI MIGRANTS, 6-8 PM
WITH RECEPTION (PLEASE BOOK THROUGH EVENTBRITE)

For Study Marathon Sponsorship Form contact: info@bhps-online.org

PROGRAMME

6 PM Rainbow Pilgrims Pop-Up Exhibition about LGBTQI migrants

8 PM Erev (Evening) Shavuot service

9 PM All-night Study Marathon on Refugees in aid of Thousand 4 1000

9-9.15 PM Personal Engagement: A Creative Approach – Claire Bessel (personal engagement will be a continuing thread throughout the night)

9.15-10.15 PM The Rainbow Pilgrims Migrants Project – Shaan Knan, Coordinator, including a short film

10.15-11.15 PM The Turkish-Muslim 'Dialogue Society' – Mahmut Gunaydin, Director

11.15 PM-12.15 AM Supporting Migrants and Refugees: The work and the challenges. Panel of speakers from local Refugees charities: Thousand 4 1000, Sanctuary on Sea, Brighton Migrant Solidarity, Migrant English Project and LGSM Migrant Solidarity

12.15-1.15 AM Fleeing Nazi Germany: Mac Goldsmith, a German-Jewish refugee in Britain – Dr Gerhard Wolf, Senior Lecturer in History, Sussex University

1.15-2.15 AM Meditation, creative activity and reflection – Andy Cable

2.15-3.15 AM Jewish experiences of migration and flight and Torah teachings on the sojourner. Torah study with the aid of maps – Rabbi Elli Tikvah Sarah

3.15-4.45 AM Two films: 'Nina's Children' by Nina Grunfeld about what happened to a group of Viennese Jewish children who went to a Summer Camp in Oslo in 1938 (65 mins) and 'We Ask Not What Thou Art' by Kevin Reynolds about the Brighton-based Space For All Estate Agency Art Project (17:10 mins)

5 AM Shavuot Shacharit (Morning) service on the beach with the reading of the Ten Commandments.

