

BHPS Lectures and Lunches

BHPS proudly presents its Third Season of amazing Lectures and Lunches for 2018/19.

Sundays

- 11.30am Welcoming drink on arrival
12 to 1.00pm Lecture by guest speaker and Q&A session
1pm to 3.00pm Lunch including wine or soft drinks and coffee

Only £22.50 per person, less 10% discount if all 5 booked.

Bookings to be taken soon, to a maximum of 70 people.

Non-members and their friends welcome

October 14: Ann Berger, director of development, promoting the life changing medical research funded by The Rose Tree Trust.

December 2: Dr Wilf Assin, consultant psychiatrist on Post Traumatic Stress Disorder. 'Not all wounds are visible'.

January 27: Sir Anthony Seldon, nationally renowned educationalist, on his latest book. (Title still under wraps!)

February 24: Aviva Dautch, literary scholar and poet on 'The remarkable Issac Rosenberg'. The First World War poet who was killed in action 1918.

March 31: Dr David Jacobson, eminent Jewish historian at Kings College, London on 'Herod's Temple in Jerusalem'. The most magnificent building in the Roman Empire in 20 BC .

PLUS

The Famous BHPS Annual Art Exhibition

Sunday: Nov 25 : 10am -5 pm

Collectible original art and prints together with jewellery, ceramics and pottery. Featuring the renown Cecil Rice and other local and UK artists.

All items available to purchase on the day together with Tea/ Cake and beautiful cards for sale.